Dear Nancy,

At Huckleberry House, we make it our mission to meet young people wherever they are in life—both literally and figuratively. We understand, perhaps better than any other organization, the challenges young people face. And we're serious about interventions that work, using tried and true practices to manage crisis, and identifying and leveraging individual and family strengths to find solutions. We're not afraid to go “there,” no matter how challenging “there” may be.

We don't go there alone. Our work is made possible by countless individuals and organizations who believe, as we do, that all young people deserve the chance to redirect and take charge of their lives.

Thank you for your recent in-kind gift of necessity bags and other items for the crisis shelter. We are so appreciative of the Assistance League's help. Just a moment ago, a young woman arrived at the shelter and we were able to give her sweatpants and a sweatshirt from your donation.

With your ongoing support, Huck House can continue to be the organization teens and families rely on in even the most unthinkable situations. We will continue to say, “We'll meet you there.”

With gratitude,

Sonya Thesing
Development Director

Thank You

December 2017

Dear Metro Columbus Assistance League,

Thank you for helping make the holidays magical for the youth in Huckleberry House programs. Because of the kindness of friends like you, we were able to provide gifts to more than 160 young people and family members.

It was our biggest holiday gift drive to date! We had gifts for the 45 young people and their children in the Transitional Living Program. We also had great gift bags for each of the 20 teens who spent Christmas week in the shelter. Family Support and Youth Outreach were also able to spread holiday cheer to their clients and contacts.

We wish you and your family a happy new year.

With much gratitude from the Development Team at Huckleberry House
